Rehan - Dr Aftab Ahmed
2019-02-25

Rehan is a beautiful tale of love, longing, ambition and friendship. Rehan is a typical lad whose world revolves around cricket and friends. He is also extremely attached to his grandmother, who is a great pillar of support and strength. Just when everything seems to be going well, his whole world comes crashing one day, resulting in Rehan giving up what he loves a lot. Thereafter, life takes on a whole new meaning for Rehan. Taking on the mantle from his grandmother is Shabnam, Rehan's close friend through school and college. But destiny strikes again, and many times thereafter, leaving Rehan confused, frustrated, betrayed and lonely. The story of Rehan's mature transformation from his boyhood days into a compassionate doctor will certainly move you with its poignant moments.

didn't care for anyone after falling in love. They were on a rollercoaster without the seatbelt. They didn't care for highs and lows. They knew that they could be thrown out, trampled beneath the wheels or thrown up into the heavens. They loved and married against their parents' wishes. But the real problem began after two years when Rehan admitted himself in a hospital. Riya lost Rehan and struggled a lot. But that made her know the importance of parents and the difference between love and marriage.

Moments of Eclecticism - Amit Ahlawat 2015-04-26

GENRE: ECLECTIC (SELF-HELP, FICTION, SPIRITUALITY) 'Moments of Eclecticism' is the collection of various write-ups and stories written by Author Amit Ahlawat till March 2015. It is a multi-genre e-book covering the following genres of writing:

1. Self-help: There are 2 pieces on self-help. One, 'How to assess how much of yourself is in the present' and two, 'Seven Ways To Sustained Happiness'. The first one talks about how our energies sometimes tend to remain divided across times. Someone may be highly nostalgic and tend to stay in memories while someone may be too anxious about the future. The write-up provides cursory diagnosis and suggestions around how a person can recollect himself happily in to the present. The other piece discusses happiness, an emotion undoubtedly valued by many. Emotions are the gifts of God, and the write-up goes on in depth to discuss various inter-related ways to feel happiness and contentment for long times. It touches upon the related concepts of goal, success, failure, love, motivation and balance to bring upon a broad perspective. 2. Fiction: There are 2 fiction pieces as well: 'Mirage - A moment of life' and 'An unexpected Interview'. Both the stories are based in India with close to real-life characters. The first piece talks through story mode about how life can not be defined but it can always be kept simple. It's the story of Naresh Prajapati, a middle aged Chief Executive who had achieved almost everything in life that he ever wanted to. How the tide turns up side down and how Naresh fights with himself to avoid the 'Mirage' and achieve 'Celebration' has been portayed with the backdrop of 'that different day he would never forget'. The second piece brings across the message that humanity prevails during crisis times irrespective of the professional barriers prevalent in today's society. The protagonists of the story are Aamir, a young graduate and Rehan, a tenured corporate marketing professional. The story is situational and involves numerous scenes and dialogues and attempts to bring across the nature of life where 'the tide could turn the other side any time' yet humanity prevails supreme even over this, if man chooses to. 3. Spirituality: The last piece of the e-book is titled 'A Collection of articles in Philosphy and Spirituality'. This is a collection of small reflective articles written by Author Amit Ahlawat over the course 2011-2014. What stands common across the articles is that there is no end to self-improvement and therefore we as individuals and society have so much unexplored, undiscovered, uncertain and unconquered with us (and outside as a reflection of the same). The answers to all the problems the world faces lie inside each one of us and its our choice to listen to our inner voice. The book is suitable for graduate and post graduate students raring to enter the industry as young professionals as it endeavors to introduce them as the smart young leaders of tomorrow.

Professionals already working in the industry also stand to gain from the personal, professional and career development insights given in the book.

Silent Wandering - GK Tahmid
2021-07-25

The story of the silent wandering has been made up of some fictional character teeth. The main characters here are a girl Inaya and her husband Rehan. The author has no liability if this fictional incident about their marital quarrel matches someone's life. The book is written only to tell a story in front of everyone. Which, of course, made the video an overnight sensation. If you make a mistake while reading a book, you will forgive it. Thanks.

The Blood on My Hands.. -

Gaurav Dashputra & Siddhant Kaushik 2014-09

“ RUNNING DOESN'T CHANGE ANYTHING... DYING DOES.” Rehan Irani's life is a mess. His line of work isn't strictly legal and the pressure is mounting. Getting into this assassination business wasn't his brightest idea. But then, beggars can't be choosers, right? And the Colonel's offer had been poisonously sweet to refuse. Hiding, lurking, killing in these damp lanes of Mumbai is now a way of life. However hard it may rain, the stains on his hands just refuse to wash. And now, this blood trail has led him to his past... A past that doesn't want to exist anymore and he has to be the one to pull the trigger. Can he kill the person he loved so much? Can he stop a person who wants to die when the cost might be his own life ?

Mecca and Main Street -

Geneive Abdo 2006-09-11

Islam is Americas fastest growing religion, with more than six million Muslims in the United States, all living in the shadow of 9/11. Who are our Muslim neighbors? What are their beliefs and desires? How are they coping with life under the War on Terror? In Mecca and Main Street, noted author and journalist Geneive Abdo offers illuminating answers to these questions. Gaining unprecedented access to Muslim communities in America, she traveled across the country, visiting schools, mosques, Islamic centers, radio stations, and homes. She reveals a community tired of being judged by American perceptions of Muslims overseas and eager to tell their own stories. Abdo brings these stories vividly to life, allowing us to hear their own voices and inviting us to understand their hopes and their fears.

Inspiring, insightful, tough-minded, and even-handed, this book will appeal to those curious (or fearful) about the Muslim presence in America. It will also be warmly welcomed by the Muslim community.

theory and evidence. The approach combines new theory and dynamic practice in its advocacy for contextualised teaching. This book shows how the teaching of smaller units of language, such as sentences, words, letters and phonemes, follows naturally from the context of whole texts. The book offers: practical examples, photographs from settings, case studies and action points to help any practitioner working with young children to develop one of the most crucial life skills, advice on how to build on children's motivation using whole texts, clear guidance on phonics teaching in an appropriate context and a unique blend of new theory and dynamic practice.
