This book explores the contributions of psychological, neuroscientific and philosophical perspectives to the design of contemporary cities. Pursuing an innovative and multidisciplinary approach, it addresses the need to re-launch knowledge and creativity as major cultural and institutional bases of human communities. Dwelling is a form of knowledge and re-invention of reality that involves both the tangible dimension of physical places and their mental representation. Findings in the neuroscientific field are increasingly opening stimulating perspectives on the design of spaces, and highlight how our ability to understand other people is strongly related to our corporeity. The first part of the book focuses on the contributions of various disciplines that deal with the spatial dimension, and explores the dovetailing roles that science and art can play from a multidisciplinary perspective. In turn, the second part formulates proposals on how to promote greater integration between the aesthetic and cultural dimension in spatial design. Given its scope, the book will benefit all scholars, academics and practitioners who are involved in the process of planning, designing and building places, and will foster an international exchange of research, case studies, and theoretical reflections to confront the challenges of designing conscious places and enable the development of communities.

This series was the winner of the American Institute of Architects' prestigious "Award for Excellence in International Book Publishing". Each volume in this series is introduced with an essay on the architect, and a chronological or stylistic presentation of their most outstanding buildings and projects. No other series provides such a complete and concise summary of the world's leading architects' works. The volumes are fully illustrated in black-and-white with photos and project renderings.

We Are Family - Fabio Bartolomei 2019
Al Santamaria is a child prodigy, maybe a genius. It is not out of the realm of possibility that he, alone, will save the human race. But first, he has to solve a far more urgent problem: finding a home for his family. He exists, like many kids, in a realm located somewhere between reality and fantasy, enjoying time with imaginary friends and wielding his magical powers. He has a wonderful relationship with his father, Mario Elvis, and his mother, Agnese, and he's convinced he has the best family in the world. But life isn't all roses for the Santamaria family. They are typical of many Italian families today, whose existences seem suspended between conflicting impulses: on the one hand, delusions of grandeur and immoderate ambition, and on the other nostalgia for a past golden age and the secret wish that somebody, anybody, will come to their rescue. Big dreams, it appears, exist to be crushed. But Al is not about to give up. He lives in a marvelous world of his own. He has the energy, imagination, and unselfconscious talents of a child. And, although he doesn't know it yet, he is going to remain a child his entire life.

Japanese Design - Penny Sparke 2009
The Museum of Modern Art and 5 Continents Editions recently launched this series of books dedicated to industrial and graphic design. Each volume offers an overview of a single country's design achievements and illustrates its particular design history and aesthetic by showcasing renowned architects and designers through exemplary works drawn from The Museum of Modern Art's unmatched collection. This season, they take on Japan. Japanese designers' special ability to combine aesthetic tradition with contemporary visual culture and material innovation has created a distinctive and exceptionally successful design industry in Japan, which has produced such divergent icons of Modern design as Sori Yanagi's Butterfly Stool, the Sony Walkman, the Honey-Pop Armchair by Tokujin Yoshioka and the Toyota Prius. This volume traces the development of Japanese design from the country's craft revival in the early twentieth century to the extraordinary objects of high technology that have been a specialty of Japanese designers since the middle of the century. Antonelli's lively introduction provides an overview of Japan's design culture, while an essay and timeline by Penny Sparke illuminate the masterpieces of Modern Japanese design that are superbly reproduced in this volume's plate section.

Italian Liberty. Il sogno europeo della grande bellezza - Andrea Speziali 2016-08-09

La riscoperta prima e la nuova consacrazione poi del Liberty in Italia, in questi ultimi anni, porta anche il nome di Andrea Speziali. La terza edizione del Volume riassuntivo e celebrativo del grande concorso fotografico "Italian Liberty" prende luce sin dalla copertina con la splendida immagine vincitrice. All'interno oltre 500 foto provenienti da 134 partecipanti degli oltre mille iscritti. 500 fotografie, dunque, selezionate tra oltre 10.000 immagini che sono giunte alla segreteria del Premio. Lo straordinario successo della premiazione annuale all'Hotel Corallo di Riccione e la sempre maggiore partecipazione di fotografi e appassionati di tutta la Penisola sanciscono la riuscita di quello che è oramai diventato un vero e proprio censimento del Liberty italiano. Presenti nel volume, ovviamente, gli scatti dei 20 vincitori nelle tre categorie: Liberty in Italia, The word Art Nouveau e Video. Prestigiosa la giuria presieduta da Vittorio Sgarbi con Cecilia Casadei, Vera Agosti, Manuela Valentini e Paolo Manazza. Arricchiscono il volume 12 straordinari saggi sulle principali (ma anche sulle meno conosciute) realtà del Liberty italiano: dalle opere di Sommaruga a Milano, la "bella morte" nel cimitero di Staglieno a Genova, il villino Conti a Civitanova Marche poi Villa Zanelli a Savona, il capolavoro del Liberty italiano del quale si è tanto parlato a causa del proprio attuale degrado, sino al Grand Hotel di San Pellegrino Terme rappresentato negli scatti del vincitore Sergio Ramari e molto altro ancora.

Campus Player - Jennifer Sucevic 2021-01-05

From USA Today bestselling author Jennifer Sucevic comes a sexy, new standalone novel. Trust me when I say that Rowan Michaels fever is alive and well at Western University. His fanbase is legendary. The guy is a major player. Both on and off the field. Girls fall all over themselves to be with him. They fill the stands at football practice, show up at parties he's rumored to be at, and basically stalk him around campus. It's a little nauseating. Don't these girls have any self-respect when it comes to a hot guy? Fine... I'll admit it, he's good looking. If you're into that kind of thing. Which I'm not. I've got school and soccer to keep me busy which is exactly why I avoid him like an unfortunate clap diagnosis. Too bad for me that Rowan is my father's star quarterback. He's practically part of the family, attending Wednesday night dinners with us. To make matters worse, we're in the same major and get stuck together in classes every semester. It's like the universe is trying to play a cosmic joke on me. The one guy I'd like to steer clear of is the very same one I can't seem to get away from. But what if Rowan isn't the manwhore I pegged him to be?What if one little secret has the capability to change everything between us?*

This is a mature New Adult novel

with strong language and sexual situations intended for readers over the age of 18*
